HIGHLIGHTS

TOMATOES

Prices are steady at low levels; growers are harvesting ample supplies in multiple regions. California and Baja growers report a wide variety of sizes on the market; new regional production is helping maintain availability.

BROCCOLI

Markets are trending higher; West Coast volume is lower due to increased demand.

ONIONS

Fresh-run MFC Onions are available in Northern California and New Mexico. New crop onion harvests have started in Washington, with Idaho and Oregon to start over the next two to three weeks.

HONEYDEW MELONS

- Markets will remain low for the next several weeks as abundant supplies are shipping from the San Joaquin Valley.
- Five- and jumbo five-count melons are ample, but eight-count fruit is extremely scarce; smaller sizes will become more readily available in a couple of weeks.

BURBANK POTATOES

- Expect rising prices over the next six weeks, especially in 40-through 70-count Idaho Burbanks.
- New crop production will start in the next 10-14 days.

RED & YELLOW POTATOES

- Availability is increasing as new crop potatoes are being harvested in multiple regions.
- Markets will decline as the season progresses into August.

Q

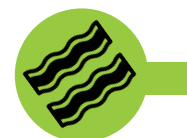

Grapes are a go-to ingredient for schools and hospitals. How do they work on restaurant menus?

A

Grapes can do so much in all areas of my menus. From breakfast granola to cheese plates to savory sauces that accompany poultry, these subtly sweet fruits are extremely versatile.

Grapes sliced in half do wonders on pizzas with balsamic glaze, prosciutto, garlic, and fresh herbs.

Or try on a hummus plate with contrasting roasted beets and pickled red onions.

TIPS FOR SERVING MFC GREEN & RED SEEDLESS GRAPES

- 1. Serve MFC Green and Red Seedless Grapes, sliced MFC Apples, pears, and figs on specialty cheese platters and on-trend boards.
- 2. MFC Lunch Bunch Grapes are healthy, delicious sides for burgers and sandwiches.
- 3. Garnish cold soups such as green gazpacho, honeydew, and cucumber with sliced MFC Grapes and slivered almonds.

MENU FEATURE

Every chef needs a few solid recipes in his or her repertoire. That's why Markon has put together a catalog of fresh produce-based recipes that cover it all: day and menu parts, the range of seasons, a variety of cuisines, and a diverse list of ingredients.

Red Grape and Ricotta Toasts

Sweet and salty, these crostini make an excellent appetizer to split or light entrée for one.

- 1 C Ricotta cheese
- 1/4 C Honey
- Pinch of kosher salt
- 2 T Almonds, finely chopped
- 2 T MFC Basil, finely chopped
- 2 tsp. Zest of MFC Lemons
- 2 C MFC Red Seedless Grapes
- 1 T Olive oil
- Pinch of kosher salt
- 1 T RSS Lemon Juice
- 1 T Sherry
- 4 Slices of bread, toasted
- Microgreens and edible flowers, to garnish

Lightly whip ricotta, honey, salt, almonds, and zest together. Chill. Toss grapes, olive oil, and salt in a mixing bowl. Heat grapes in a skillet until just starting to burst. Deglaze with lemon juice and sherry (taking care not to ignite alcohol). Heat until liquid has cooked off. Plate by putting equal portions of ricotta on the slices of toasted bread, then topping with grapes. Garnish with microgreens and edible flowers.

This elegant plate of umami-rich tuna and subtly sweet grapes works well as a starter or a light entrée.
